

SCIENCE CONGRESS

A team of five Class 10 students represented Goodley Public School, Adarsh Nagar, in the senior category of the National Children's Science Congress (NCSC). The theme for this year was Science, technology and innovations for sustainable development. The event was organised by the Network of organisations for Science and department of Science and Technology, govt of India.

The students in the team were group leader Prashant Singla of 10-C, Bhavya Arora of 10-D, Kritika of 10-E, Manuj Jain of 10-B and Manan Chugh of 10-E. After a scrutiny by the evaluation teams, the project was selected for participation in events of 25th NCSC.

BAND COMPETITION

The band of Happy Home Public School, Rohini, won the second position in a zonal-level band competition. The school management, principal and teachers were all praise for the team for bringing laurels to the school. The victorious team left no stone unturned to win. The team's coordination and synchronisation made the opponents anxious. The aesthetically-designed band costumes added to the glory of the winning team. Clad in red attire, the team won everyone's admiration showcasing their marvelous instrumental skills and presence of mind. The regional song Bidu Pako was fascinatingly played by the group. It was a day for the parents of the winners to feel proud. Brimming with confidence, the team added another feather to the school's cap. The school band also secured the first position in an inter-school band competition. The words of William Shakespeare were suitable for the occasion: The man that hath no music in himself, Nor is not moved with concord of sweet sounds, Is fit for treasons, stratagems, and spoils. The motions of his spirit are dull as night, And his affections dark as Erebus. Let no such man be trusted. Mark the music.

YOUTH PARLIAMENT

The social science department of M.L. Khanna DAV Public School, Dwarka, organised a Youth Parliament Session for the students of Classes 5 and 6 on the thought-provoking topic 'Should exams be there for students?' A youth parliament is an academic simulation of the Indian Parliament that aims to educate participants about current events and topics in national relations. There was a lively debate and it was heart-warming to see the zealous participation of the students. The conclusion was that exams are necessary to motivate students to study, learn and evaluate their performance. The session involved the students in decision-making process and aimed to equip future leaders with debating, problem solving attitude and leadership qualities.

ents and cared on students to develop respect for grandparents. Parents applauded the sensitive and emotional speech. The students presented a small skit titled Yesterday, today and tomorrow. The staff members organised activities based on chits, balloons and guess the song for grandparents. Winners of the activities were awarded first, second and third prizes for each activity. The children gave the gifts to grandparents.

CREATIVITY DECATHLON

The students of KR Mangalam World School, GK-II, excelled in the Creativity Decathlon Global Finals hosted by the Korean Association of Creativity Education sponsored by Ajou University in Seoul in August. Three students of KR Mangalam World namely Angad of Class 7 as well as Akshay and Ravvaraj of Class 6 bagged the first position and added another plume to the school's saga of success. Principal Alka Awasthi congratulated the students for winning laurels for the school. Earlier, students had been selected for the Seoul competition on the basis of an inter-school team competition of creativity, quick decision making and problem solving held in May. The students had a natural flair for creative contests but had also prepared hard for the event in Seoul.